Ld Stormont

4375

St James's Dec 19. 1781
4½ P. Prev. 8 M

Lord Rockingham moved that the 3d Reading of the Lord Tax should be postponed till the first day after the Recess. The general scope of his speech was that there must be a change of Men & Measures. The Duke of Charles spoke with Spirit on the same side, and said that he did not know whether even that would now save this Country but that the Nation had a Right to expect that the Experiment shd be made.

Ld Westmoreland spoke well in answer, and in such a Manner as shewed his real Talents for Parliamentary Debate
