

In 1789 Lucy Charlotte Finch had a house purchased for her in Sheep St. Windsor & also extensive apartments at St.
James' - She tried hard to educate her 3 granddaughters the Misses Fielding with the younger Princesses - but the Queen would not allow it - the King had elevated this father (Capt. F. in the Navy) as high as he could & Mrs. Fielding was made bedchamber woman & more could not be done - Miss Finch came only by invitation - She was perfectly a lady - much liked very deservedly 20 -
