

John Belson to v

GEO. AD.

No. 1

TWO PENNY
POST
PIMLICO

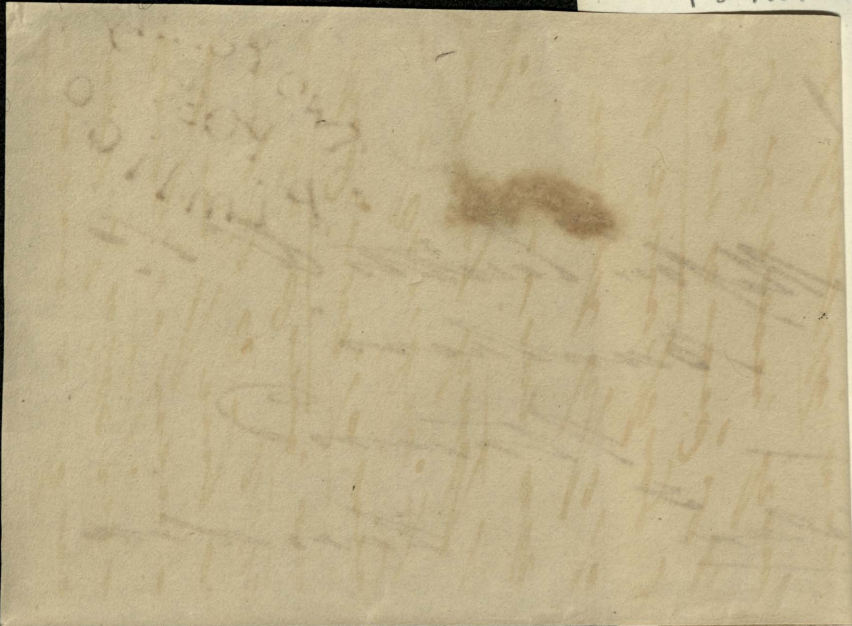

Messrs. Belson & Co.
Bankers

Strand

2^d of Jan^r

London

John 10

Jan. 2 [1805]

Sir
I will never, to myself, to your letter, without loss of time, some very soon, was in circumstances, is full by God's Providence, by my disappointment as to this loss to bequeath, and my other loss of income, since I first saw them as my chief anxiety is, to give them suiciding cause of offence, after, his in such attention, to me, and my little money. The fact is, the story, is so clear, and my conduct so honourable in life, that it is perfectly explained, pity, must be some other circumstances. I am not the first Officer, high, or low in rank, who cannot bring, to an arrangement, his note of hand: there is no culpability in it, if the loss to was over then me, as first legal opinion state, as it must remain for ever. But if, 5 £ was only wanted to pass, the word was, to refuse payment, of 5 £.
I have it not, so help me God, me and mine, literally work me and, or at least, all but Baseline these times we have but 82 £ in all a year, and to live on, there are six of us, and a servant besides, no certification, can be made, in our experiences. That 828 is allowed, of course, in success, we must have stayed, but for duration from the past people, of late, in their things done, persons will know to the gen^l and possibilities, one, of the royal brother, who visited Mrs. Belam, in a friendly letters, in her last last last time abroad - was often second us over through your kindness of, in and being our situation, to your best view. I am sure, you would send us a trifle, not add, to our services, means of work. Mr. kindred, and your prints, and correspondents. I was not at home, to the late Mr. Staples the more affluent Manchester, who failed, to bring up, under his, from a boy: we have Lord, Michael, son, and Mr. M. in our family. some, books also have been sent, many have large services of their own, so no blame to them, our situation, in life. I need not tell you, an Office half pay, is sent, correspondents, to be, as disposed of, if rather, no necessity, and himself can manage of it.

It is a great, for full services, to be have from services. I am sure you mission in advance, above the year and as I must have a part of the go on with it will remain, he free till my situation in life is bettered or the idea of making it over, is ever possible, cannot be done, with any legal means, unless of it, or then another is assumed. I am more out, to afford, the Gov^{ts} is my chief distrust, to be a prisoner, by him, will not lessen my opinion of him, or my sense of his past goodness to us, which I am as it were, in confession already.

For I am held to bail, in divine matters and of course, must go to the block, the incurment called on, by their deceit.
I believe next soon, it must be my part of course, and will, to buy my debt, it was done. That our debt, might be not be divided, or a large portion kept, till last extremity. The condition would be my debt to fix my bail.
That is my concern, to prevent, in time. I am thoroughly noticed, in mind, the confined to the House, for weeks from illness, where friends are concerned, who have visited me, and wished of the Gov^{ts} who regain all former letters. How much soon to be pitied in life will show me a 10 month. I will his interest, I will on the other half of its salary, to him, and others, in liquidation of my debts, my boots which might be added, for 300 £.

This can be done, and appears the only expedient, to my necessary living. Besides, if I survive long what but my health prognosis is to survive "post life", prison allow not even a Red, much less food. In word I cannot now, pay the 48 £, and I could, now and, I have borrowed it, had I known, how, the legacy, and my health, and other matters would have terminated, the instant term was, I will all, or part or I will do, as above, if I obtain a situation, to enable me, to do, as I urgently wish, some

Yours
ever very obedt^t

John Bullen

2^d Jun^y

A safe and safe, shall time

It will be the same as before

I understand, is cost, 20 £, ultimately