

New 5. May 1801.

The King is so much pleased at the sensibility of heart of his Secretary at War, and with finding that inheriting the Talents of his ancestors he also possesses their sentiments of attachment to His Majesty and to our excellent and unparalleled Constitution that he could not refrain on returning the Box with the warrants to express his feelings on this Occasion

George III

Dear Sir

I have the pleasure to inform you that the same has been done and the same has been done and the
same has been done and the
same has been done and the

Yours faithfully
[Signature]

Summtho. Henry.
May 5th 1801.