

Inventory of the King's Jewels found in the Deal Box, Cipher J.R. - 7th January 1819 - in Her late Majesty's Bed Room in a Dress under the Window

A large Brilliant Gorge set round with 8 large Brilliants, Knot at top.

A very large Brilliant Gorge with Rubies, Sapphires in the Drapery & Brilliant Fleur-de-lis at top.

A very large Brilliant Star & Brilliant Button Loop for the Ribbon a — do — — do — for the Hat.

A Pair of Brilliant Shoe Buckles & Brilliant Sleeve Buttons.

A Brilliant Sword Hilt, Ribbon & Leaf Pattern —

A do — Brilliant Sword with Helmet at top.

A Brilliant Cartel

Replaced in the Box in which they were found, being previously compared by me with this list in the presence of Mr. Budge

H

I Mr John Bost, the Box locked & sealed with His King's Seal and deposited in Mrs Beckedorff's Room until the jewel can be more carefully packed & removed to the Bank by His Majesty's Trustees -

(signed)

H. Taylor

Queen's Palace

Jan^y. 4. 1819

Witness - John Bost.

THE ROYAL ARCHIVES
8131

Inventory of the papers found in the Great Hall, White Hall 17th January 1849 - in the late King's Bed Room in a box under the window

1848

RA 1617 (i) AW 2/85.80