

[1807]

+

Bushy House

Thursday

Afternoon

Dear Member.

I would never have acknowledged yours but I have had the joy: the Legion that is to say the Infantry are disbanded thanks to Windham: we are really in a hopeful way we expend sixteen thousand
 -and nine Four thousand thousand: Lord Grenville at one blow destroys by the abolition of the Slave Trade the Maritime strength of the country and we are again threatened with invasion: to encounter which two hundred thousand men are to be called out literally to do nothing.

GEO. A.

I think eventually the Russians will beat the French:
at least Bonaparte cannot bring the Poles forward and I believe the troubles or rather insurrections in Europe are unripe.

The great commander is in a scrape and had better stick to military affairs: politics are not his business:
I fancy a storm will shortly burst over his head that will not only astonish him but the world.

Mr Jordan writes with me in every sense, wish for your health and welfare: we desire to be kindly re-membered to your daughter: the children have all had the chicken pox, but are fast recovering: the im-provements here are going on and you would hardly know the place: I shall be glad to see you and bring so thoroughly disjunct with all parties you will be at.

[1807]

and meet certain to find me at this place.

I ever remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours sincerely
J. H. Williams