June 8th 1826.

Dear Daniell,

Last night brought me ^{four} papers of 19th they with its various enclosures and I return the proper papers signed as usual and also a letter for Shreve that when I mention you will not being raised that foolish obstinate and self willed quack man who I am afraid will see his error too late. I suppose is I suppose with you now and he cannot be better than with generally and Shreve then. Really he will not have any reason to complain as the days are long and the nevertheless fine and I know he likes your society and that of Providence Mass.

I am glad the party at the Upper Lodge went off so well and George writes us most perfectly satisfied with the Law and those under him. I make no doubt I shall find the Masses in perfect order on my return and the Park and Town going on well under your directions. I am glad you have had a hot rain and you hadly you will have more than enough. But it rains much & wants.

We have had one: but he that it has not presented our usual wealth. I am sure we shall never have till ^{the} July that the Dutchess and They may use those waters effectually. It is not quite what I ought to be I am still however much well for this season of the year. Do not think me ill ever believe me,

Yours sincerely
 J. Ashurst
