

No. 51.

Lichtenstein.
June 7: 1819.

Dear Daniel,

I enclose you the catalogue of the books bought at Posen and which have to be conveyed by the first opportunity to Manner from whence they will be conveyed by the quarters of the post to Baylen; there are three cases instead of four and the Post charges will take one more at a time; Halliday who is certainly a judger seems highly pleased with his purchase and has stated what in his opinion the books must fetch in Baylen: I gave eight ten Pounds Eight Shillings for what he says are more than one third the value of the books: advise me ever believe me,

Yours sincerely
 J. J. Halliday

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on aged, yellowed paper. The text is mirrored across the page, suggesting bleed-through from the reverse side.]

