

L: 56.

Lichenstein.
July 18th: 1819.

Dear Sir, Yours L: 51 came this morning and I return you as usual the papers signed: I thought Bennet's sent his book: I shall ever be happy to assist Dr. Lloyd in his my power and lament most sincerely his loss of sight: you must apply to Barton for the money requisite to purchase fifty copies at the time rates then the proper and I will on my return pay him back the money:
adieu and ever believe me,

Yours sincerely

[Faint, illegible cursive handwriting on aged paper]

