Dear Daniell,

On my arrival here the night before last I found your 2: 56, 57 and 58 with their usual enclosures which I have signed: I am glad the Books are bought and approved most highly of the various articles required for: James's being sent from Buxton where they can always be returned in case - as they: the horses in the park of Dunes and about - about: for the present keep the horses and shall frequently want you in London: I hope to see you in a few days and ever remain,

Yours sincerely
J. J. Williams
