

J. Jamieson.
 &
 March 2: 1821.
 Late at Night.

Dear Daniell,
 I am sorry it will not be in my power to visit Bury tomorrow: but unfortunately the infant has been indisposed in consequence of the change of nurses and I must attend the physicians about her which would prevent my doing any good with you: besides, I do not like to leave the Dutchess who has suffered most severely from anxiety of mind: she is I think God is very materially better and will be present in a short time quite well again: if you do not hear to the contrary let the horses be in town on the 15th instant at the usual hour:

 I have had a sad meeting with the Dutchess and hope her mind will now be easy again:
 adieu and ever believe me,

Yours sincerely

J. S.
 William Pitt

[Faint, illegible handwriting on a large sheet of paper, possibly a map or document, with some visible lines and a central fold.]