

Dear Sir,
 I have the honor to receive your letter of the 20th inst. in relation to the August 20th 1811.

Dear Sir,

I am very glad to hear of your day's presence of two men putting up the beds in the Dutch's Bed Room. I am not under stand what has produced the objection the A.C. angle a second time in the Library. I am with you that I shall be a clever fellow and will very well, they will be as soon as return to Beoby: we may not reach home on Saturday till too late to do business on the day: but I will in the case settle with him on the Sunday: I make no doubt I shall find things as forward as the time will admit next Saturday. I have yours to call your attention to lamps on the different staircases and in the passages and in the Hall: the chandeliers for the Dining Room must be fixed up: one more I suspect Mr. Lloyd is a well favored man and his heart is warm and no man more generous I make no doubt that all will go well and comfort at Beulah: adieu till Saturday unless I have occasion to write to you and ever believe me your affectionate

 J. P. Lloyd

[Faint, mostly illegible handwriting on a folded piece of paper. Visible fragments include:]

...c
the
...:
...ta
...ia
...ta
...ave
...e
...e
...e
...e
...e
...e