Boyer.
 August 30: 1821.
 Dear Barton,
 In answer to both your letters of yesterday I am to observe that both you and myself are indeed Law and Justice! Oath ought to have some thought of regularly lighting the house: certainly of power of the glass lamp being for the present put up in the Hall. I wonder you do not recollect going with me to the shop to see the Brass Chandeliers I bought in Spring Gardens for the Dining Room: it is very natural for Law and Justice Oath to wish to see their relations and equally proper in you in giving them leave: I cannot comprehend what is the cause of the delay in the Library: we must exceed to investigate it: the room has been used more than eighteen years and none on by me than this short year.

 - and this misfortune has made its appearance: the pay
 - says and this must be lighted and in the course of the next week we can make our final arrangements for the whole house and in which the Dutches, will assist us: I do not doubt after a little time things will go on well comfortably and regularly: you may have tomorrow a visit from Barton: advise till to-morrow day afternoon and ever believe me,

I Dear Sir,

Yours sincerely

William
