Queens House April 12. 1788

It seems extraordinary after I have so clearly pointed out that Colonel Hotham is the Channel through whom W. Thom ought to make his Applications that ~~He still~~ persists in employing Captain Elphinstone; but this remark is alone for Colonel Hotham.

As ~~to~~ ^{to} ~~the~~ ^{the} Captain's alledges will procure the Supplies now stated by the Survey it will be best to fix them at that sum and for Colonel Hotham to mention it is done according to the opinion given by that Captain.

The Plate may be sent as soon as it is ready to Plymouth I suppose the Wagon will easily carry it.

I shall in the course of the next Week see the Colonel with the Accounts of a Quarter.
