Laurens House
Sept. 12th 1842.

My dear Lady Eliza

I was not able to answer yours very kind letter of the 5th and your wish I should now to return you my best thanks. It gives me much satisfaction to hear of the success of your paper & I am very grateful to find that my humble contribution has been of some use. You seem to have generous contribution some must have secured surely.

I have been well hitherto I was able to take a walk top of the fine weather to take frequent airings, but I am very useful only go out when I can do so with safety.

This house is more than justable, this is a quiet

 The Situation is perfectly every flat - but that are perfectly rivers & rivers belonging to the place which make up for to the want of views from the house. On the whole I have every reason to be satisfied with the place.

I was delighted with your answer of the ladies
