ADD 4.

Witley Court
(Dun. 15th)

My dear lady Eliza

I have been quite touched with your goodness to have written to me

Thank you most affly
for your kind letter
of the 12th.

I can not enter into all your feelings &
do so with all my heart

I assure you, that I know from my own experience what they are. You I hope
do that with your
steady religious feelings & pious resignation
you will give your
spirits again, & tho'
with a broken heart
will exert them for the sake of your dear
children who will be such a comfort to you.

I had gone up the street
you have a good advantage
the face which will assist you in hearing
up was personally for their happiness.
I must be a great comfort to yourself as well as to your son & to remain together & I am very glad to hear of your being all united & domiciling in your own home.

I am not yet quite
recovered, & am cold
upon cold. The cough
too is still very troublesome & fatiguing.
I have had a kind visit
from the S^r of Kent
& the of Lambeth
& am now alone again.
Both have been here also with the two little girls, & returned some days in the evening.
The S^r of Kent of the Resignation of Ministers

has astonished us all very much & we cannot comprehend the necessity of such a measure. It seems to have taken
every one by surprise.
The fact is not known
of this Government.
I do not think that all will turn out for the best. I pity the poor who are much.

May this find you
well in health, my
dear friend. I hope to be

Kindly remember to yourself & Drapkin
in law & your two daughters and remain ever, very
Dear Lady Eliza

Your truly affectionate
Friend

Her Grace
