Windsor Castle Aug^r 22. 1740.

Dear William, I have received your letter of the 6.th of last Month, and this day one of the 6.th of this Month; I flatter myself your conduct has changed this Year much to your advantage as the Accounts from the Admiral as well as those from M^r. Majordie have uniformly given me satisfaction; indeed I have no objects in life but to do my Duty and to see my Children turn out an Ornament to their Country and a comfort to their Parents, which can alone be attained by Assiduity and imbibing virtuous and honourable Principles such as must render them useful Members of Society and examples to the Youth of this Country, that may tend to restore the manners of it.

You may easily imagine though ever much in our thoughts that Yesterday was kept as a Day of festivity; may it ever be so to the latest period of my life, which will be a proof of your conducting yourself praise worthy, and you will ever find Me

Dear William

Your most affectionate Father

George

P.S.
I do not mean by my general Commendation to include that I understand you have quite conquered some worms & any improprieties in your conduct being private only but I trust your good sense will correct that which must arise more from pride than sense
