

My Dearest Brother

I return you a thousand thanks for your Letter which I had no reason to expect since you could not have received my answer to your last Letter when you wrote to me again; I assure you that I am delighted to find that you spend so many of your thoughts on me, and that our long separation has not the least lessened the friendship that you was so good as always to entertain for me. I flatter myself that I am not totally unworthy of it since I am most sincerely attached to you.

You are so good as to wish me a pleasant Winter I do assure that it would be a thousand times happier if you were here to enjoy the same pleasures that I do; I have already been four times to the play to see a new Actress who is quite incomparable in Tragedy; the King and the Queen are very much pleas'd with her.

My Brothers and Sisters send their best love to you but Augusta and Elizabeth tenderly reproach you for not having wrote to them.

Lady Charlotte Finch desired me to present her affectionate duty to you and begged me to witness how much she was flattered by your remembering her.

Adieu my Dearest Brother

I am
Your ever affectionate Sister
Charlotte M.
