August 9th 1030.

My Lord Duke,

Having receiv'd your Grace's Approbation of my Proposals to continue the Attendance of the High Constable of Westminster, on the Days of His Majesty's Services, and of other Court Ceremonies, and to reduce the Number of Constables, usually employ'd by Him, on such Occasions, from eighty to eight, I have now the Honor of acquainting your Grace, that the necessary Orders have been given for carrying this Arrangement into Execution.

I have the Honor to be, my Lord Duke, your Grace's most obedient humble servant,
The Lord Steward
Sidmouth
