

S. James's the March 15: 1815.

Dear Prayo, In answer to yours of ^{the} 11th instant relative to what has passed between you and the Lord Lieutenant respecting the neatness
-ness in the representation of the Surge I shall observe it being of this side of the water no step can be taken effectually till your ar-rival here and I rejoice to hear you will be with us early in the next month: my deep-
-tenure with me in every sincere wish to -wards, the (rents): the sooner you come the better

-towards me believe me,

Dear Prayo,

Yours unalterably

William