J. James's
Saturday

My Dear Lord,

I am to acknowledge yours of yesterday and thank your kindness ought to thank the Deputy and his kind bid me to when and where you are to see the service: the Dutch ship quit well and come to me the one in every sense we wish towards the good and excellent inhabitants of Beestel Lodge: my daughter and son with Mr. Hasperline here today and are to participate in the service of the Dutch ship which all we wish had been to me and mine: I go tomorrow to Port -mouth and shall not be back till Friday to dinner: do not come to town till you have heard from Lord Sidmouth and then believe me, My Dear Lord,

Yours sincerely

J. P.
