

Edwardina Kent - now Lady Hlinn 35980
This Person was a Child of Poor Parents.
And one of those adopted by the late Queen Caroline.
Her Name of Edwardina - was given - from her having been christened by Doctor Edward Legge, Bishop of Oxford - County in which she was born.
and Kent, from the Highness might have noticed this late Royal Highness might have noticed her as a Protegee of the late Queen Caroline.
But she does not appear to have any other claim.
