I have, dear Brother, had a long conversation with Cakes relative to the money business, we talked over at length the result of which is that I have recollection certainly did authorize him to use my name as I promised him to stand security for a thousand pound: he is ready to bring the man before him you and relate the circumstances: he seems sensible of the impropriety of his permission
- but and has writ most aptly for his employment, which I have done through the Duke of Cumberland.

I am,

Yours sincerely

J. Pitt Rivers
