

Prince William
April 30th 1789

44856

Andromeda
Spit Head

April 30: 1789

Sir,

Upon my arrival at this post yeterday, received the most heart-felt satisfaction in hearing of Your Majesty's perfect recovery.

Permit me to express my sentiments on this truly joyful occasion both for the nation at large, and the family in particular, who thank God have now restored the best of sovereigns and the best of fathers. Long may you enjoy Your Majesty and may the people so happily situated under Your Majesty wise and mild government give room for a proof of their attachment to Your Majesty's sacred person. As an individual who has the honor of being related in the double capacity of son and subject, permit me in one more to return my thanks to the great Disposer of all events for having thus graciously been pleased to retire so valuable a life to a whole nation and a disconsolate family and that I am from the bottom of my heart,

Sir,

Your Majesty's most affectionate and most dutiful Man. & Subject

W. Pitt