Dear Brother,

Ten thousand thanks for your kind letter which I this morning received. many days I trust will not pass before we reach Spithead. Nothing can be said at this time about war or peace. but I believe peace will prevail. I am glad to find my loves have not forgotten me. It gives me great pleasure to hear the Duke of Cumberland is so much better. remember me kindly to him and the Dutchess. I am now for the present at Southampton and ever believe me

Yours for ever
