Buckley House.

Sunday.

Dear Mother,

I am almost afraid even the sound of my name will be even disagreea-ble to you: but the enclosed from Mr Charles Pole will save you a long letter from me: you will perceive I have named thro' him the of-fer of Helene the foreign order of St George:

I say Helene because I am not sure that is the name: but of course without the King's consent it cannot be effected: I want your opi-niions and when we next meet Wednesday your well known me: the offer is not merely for George but for all my sons and will of course require consideration.

Ever believe me,

I Dear Brother,

Yours most affectionate

William
