

The Duke of Clarence 1812

45006

Durham House.
Sunday Night.

Dear Mr.

One thousand thanks for the trouble
-ble you have taken and for the letter from Mr.
Thompson which I keep: I am written to that body and to Mr. we should be done by day on the 12th: you will perhaps yourself write to her tomorrow in which case I wish you would desire her to write to me at St. James's and not here: I go on Tuesday to London and shall remain there till

Thursday or Friday, I mean with my daughter to sleep at Billinghurst and show her Canterbury Cathedral in our way to Ramsgate.

I mention my delight at Lady Catherine's being
-ing expected: my wish to cultivate the acquaintance of the daughter and the peculiar elegance of Miss Lang: I do admit to eventually crown this capitation with success: I hope on every account you and Mr. M will be of the party: advise till Tuesday and ever believe me,

My best friend,

Yours most sincerely

William