Dear Sir,

I enclose two letters and have sent a letter into Calais with my letter of thanks to Mellington for his kind and particular attention to my wounded George and my letter to my gallant and fortunate son. I hope in God dear George will do well and recover entirely the use of his thigh. I am most grateful indeed to the Prince Regent for sending me a servant with my son's letter. George having served his time for a Major. I hope my brother will give him the brevet Rank of Major. I must also empire Charter Frederick may have his commission

I hope not to be under the necessity of troubling you again tomorrow, but that must depend on events:

I shall be in town about dark next Friday and ever remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours sincerely
