Night.

Dear Sir,

I send this by my servant &c.

— I beg my flag is down: but having been most particularly civil to the Russians under my command I have accepted of an — two dinner from Admiral Cochrane and therefore remain here tomorrow: I shall leave this on Saturday morning at nine which will give me the post and I shall reach Carlisle House by nine that night, I enclose a Thimble just brought back by Lord William FitzRoy: no thing can have been better than our expeditions. I shall write a line till Saturday and ever believe me,

Dear Sir;

Yours sincerely

W. Pitt Rivers
