Saturday
Morning.

My Dear Brother,

Had you been disengaged yesterday that I might have had five minutes conversation with you. I should not have troubled you with this letter: but after having been near twenty years cured by Hydrotherapy for or near I cannot well refuse delivering you from him the following message: in the event of the establishment for the benefit of Charlotte being made Hydrotherapy you will think of him: I can only add from experience he is perfect master of accounts and a sincere friend to economy: I really believe him to be every fit person to take charge of every thing both in and out of doors and the most perfect man to be under the immediate head of the establishment of ^{to} Princess Charlotte: I must again repeat I do not disinterested friend for twenty years and I am anxious to serve him.

Ever believe me,

Dear Mother

Yours most affectionately
A. Pitt
