

The Duke of Clarence

[Nov. 7 1816]

45131

Buckingham Palace.
Thursday Night.

Dear Sir,

When I was in town last Tuesday I was so much engaged I forgot to enclose a note I had from Atterbury: it is certainly very hard upon fellow he cannot get on as an Army Agent and I wish you knew how we could serve with him when necessary with the Prince of Coburg.

Perhaps the death of the King of Württemberg may detain the Deputy a few days longer in Suffolk: I go next Tuesday with my two eldest daughters thro' town into Ardshire to Mr. Charles Poles: I shall -desire to see you between mean times:

I go tomorrow to Windsor but return the next day home: advise and ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

Yours most sincerely

William
