S<sup>t</sup>. James's.
Sunday Evening.
Half past nine.

Dear Brother, just as the Bishop of London had finished making a Christian of the little Elizabeth your Majesty's most gracious letter reached me. The hour & the joyful lighted with the name and image you to feel and re-sible of your Majesty's goodness towards herself and me:

Mr. Wm. Knighton will wait on your Majesty by ordinary Street & present accounts of both mother and daughter: I remain your Majesty's most affectionate and most devoted Brother and Subject Wm. Williams
