The
Jan: 5: 1823.

Late at Night.

Sir,

When I had the honour of writing last evening to your Majesty to return my ever sincere thanks, and those of my son, Adolpheus in consequence of your Majesty's goodness and goodness towards him certainly did not expect to be again and so soon called upon to perform my gratitude to your Majesty for a far handsomely greater mark of your Majesty's kind remembrance and peace towards my daughter the Countess of Corwall. The Dutcheff has always most kindly interestted herself in the welfare of Elyze and feels jointly with some most your dearly and sensibly your Majesty's great goodness towards my daughter in per-mitting her to accompany the apartments at Hampton Court Palace that were in the possession of Lady Comby Wellerby. I woud woud to express the benefit your Majesty has conferred on the Earl and Countess of Corwall and I am sure they will both be bound forever to your Majesty by the strongest ties of duty and gratitude.

In such acts of goodness towards those of my family in every short & tedious dis-eas'd call for the what I trust I feel but I have not words to express to you than -justly my gratitude and ought: my pe-
-ture conduct must prove that your pro--justly goodness and magnificence is not thrown away nor unworthily per-son.

The Dutchess desires me to assure you that she has deeply she feels the act of remembrance and is most sensible of your

His Majesty's entire kindness and -ness towards us.

I remain,

Sir,

Your Majesty's most affectionate and most dutiful Brother and Subject
