Dear Sir,

I am this instant, favored with your letter of today and sincerely re-joice you are enabled to visit on board, all the present circumstances, such on time passable here part of the day.

You may assure His Majesty that whatever we write or say to me shall be disclosed to no man or woman living. All I can wish and desire ^{is that} the Parliament of this country may have a permanent and respectful cabinet agreeable to the wishes of my brother and preserving the confidence of his Subjects.

I am truly happy to add the reception of Don Miguel in London has gone off with a single draw back and I am convinced this Prince will leave the Metropolis with gratitude and well directed towards our -陛下 and our illustrious monarch.

I ever remain,

Dear Sir,

Yours most truly

W. Pitt
