of Newhaven 12th July 1828

My Dear Sir,

His Royal Highness the Duke of Clarence, on a more mature consideration of the tenor of your letter dated the 10th instant, having applied officially to the King, through the Duke of Wellington, for your removal from the Council of the Lord High Admiral, His Royal Highness is of opinion that any further communication by letter upon this subject, for the present, will only cause unnecessary Annoyance to himself and you; and

and He has therefore commanded me to acknowledge the receipt of your Letter to him of yesterday, and to say to you, that under existing circumstances He thinks it best no more should be written.

I have the honour to remain

My Dear Sir

Your very Faithful Servant
