

Buckingham House.

Monday

Night.

Dear Brother,

I am confident you have very much to serve me when you can: it is now in your power to be of the greatest service in persuading the Duke of Cambridge to take my apartments upon the following terms: I cannot afford to maintain the servants there and am ready to resign them to my brother provided Adolphus will husband pay all the servants as I do at present: this is so great an advantage for the Duke of Cambridge that I am sure you will use every argument for my brother to accept this very liberal offer.

To show you how serious I am I must inform you that I have written to Dalrymple to give him warning of the necessity I am under of discontinuing his allowance and I am at present engaged in reducing every other part of my establishment

I hope to see you next Friday and talk this matter over fully in the meantime adieu and ever believe me,

Yours most affectionately

W. Pitt

W. Pitt. Mr. Duke
