

Bushy House.
 Thursday
 Night.

Dear Pa,

Presuming I have reminded you some of the information he had had of -portunity of speaking to the Prince of Wales on the urgency of my affairs, who not only heard him in the most favourable manner but has autho-rized him to make some arrangement for me: I don't like to trouble my brother, where there is some-times more than I can help and therefore request you will express my sincere acknowledgments and gratitude for this fresh mark of my love that I have and regard: indeed I have been persuaded and in--treated that the Prince Regent has not want the inclination but the power to do every thing for me:

his whole and constant conduct towards me for forty two years has been one continued proof of affec-tion and regard.

It was with sincere regret I was prevented from attending the anti-trade and: Henry Bedford has again requested me to remain another week quite here: I shall ^{endeavour} respect my annual ob-
-tack and have at least the comfort of not feeling will have been this time last year: God bless you and ever believe me,

Dear Sir,

45268

Yours faithfully

J. H. D.

The Duke of Clarence
