W. H. M. Duke
of Lancaster

Windsor
Half-past three Sunday.

Dear Mother,

I received this morning
-ained from field's letter and I made my arrangements accordingly and intend going with you this evening to town. From field's letter and the clock are this moment arrived.
Please request to make her own thanks who is delighted. I am desired by the Queen to say every thing that is kind and affectionate and how sincerely she regrets your absence:

I may add with great truth every individ-ual writes in lamenting the cause of you not being at Frogmore and hope you will soon be quite well. I have this in view a quarter's carriage at eight and desire you will let me have your chariot at 11.30 at half ^{eight} past this evening that I may have the pleasure of personally appearing you that I am and ever will be,

Dear Brother
Yours most affectionately
H. H. D.
