My dear Dearest Brother

Amongst the many Congratulations I received on Sunday were with the most sincere wishes from a man I could trust to My dear G^d than those of your old friend one Believe me my Dearest that my thoughts are constantly about you - my invaluable Friend will tell you how my heart as well as those of fellow tritured heads, rejoice in this sad separation - I dare not confess to speak about it - You will see the propriety of my silence but I cannot cease to lament that I am still deprived of the blessing of beholding my Dearest G^d - God grant that this new year bring me entirely into my former one of quiet happiness to yourself and consequently to that of all them who love you as dearly as I do

Your most truly aff^r friend
