

AA

[Oct. 30 1795]
(King's Speech Oct. 29)

I must begin my letter from myself (though I am commanded by Mama to write) but to say that my inclination as well as my real affection would have troubled you long ago with a letter but that since I have had the happiness of seeing you that we have had scarcely a minute to call our own as the Yorks & Branges have been here since last Monday & stay with us till Wednesday; our whole morning has been spent comme à l'ordinaire, in taking the air with them & shewing them most of the beautiful places in the neighbourhood, but the weather has been very little calculated for parties of pleasure, yesterday Mama took the Prince of Orange to Town, & Mama & Augusta remained at William's while Lady Bath accompanied the Prince of Orange to the house of Lords, for to hear the speech. I was to have been of the party but I was taken exceedingly ill in the night, violently sick & so swelled that they think I must have been poisoned, & that owing to a remarkable large lobster which I eat of at supper - you need not think any more about me, as I am now perfectly well, & shall be out again to morrow -

Marion desires me to say every thing that is kind & affectionate from her, she is very happy to hear that you are all so comfortably settled at Brighton, & that the Prinsep is going on so well, she would have written herself to day, but it was quite out of her power. You will hear from her soon -

As I have written to nobody, I have heard from nobody, so am more stupid than ever, & fear that this epistle will be a very great proof of it to you; the more we see of the Granges, the more we like them, & though things have gone on as usual, every body here allows that the party has been a very pleasant one; we live entirely at the Castle -

I beg you my very very dearest Brother to believe that though you are out of sight, that you never can be out

that happy up, & going

my
happy
very
I beg me tell
the

AA

[Oct. 30 1795]
(Kin's Speech Oct. 29)

out of my mind, as there is nothing that I am so interested about as your happiness; I beg my love to the Prince, & hope that neither of you will forget, your truly affectionate

Sister

Eliza

My letter could never contain half the love I am ordered to send, so I kindly bump the whole to you, & Mamma particularly ordered me to say, that she would not fail telling the King of all the kind things you say concerning Him.

Prince Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales

By your order without date
The Prince of Wales

AA

Dec. 2 1795

My dear Brother

After seeing you yesterday I had a visit from my friend Lady Dushwood who is truly & thro: roughly grateful to you for all your goodness which she never can express by words but she hopes that her actions will prove what expressions never can, when she comes into a situation so honorable, & so kindly given by you, to prove her self to please she is at Mrs's Hotel in case you might want her. & Maria commanded me to let you know that she mentioned to the Promp this morning that she wishes her to see Lady Dushwood on to morrow that the first meeting might be over, before she saw them all together on Friday morning when Mama will come to Cotton. From at twelve o'clock, she wishes you to appoint the different Nurses to be seen by the Prince, one after another but not all at once, as that would be disagreeing to those who all work the same thing. Mama also begs that the Op would appoint Mr Daskwood at the same time that she may also see the Nurses ~~for~~ that she may give her opinion to the Prince.

If you wish that Mr Daskwood should wile in town about the time that Mr Osby is to be stationed at Cotton house you will have the goodness to let her see for now she is your friend at your orders under which it may be more agreeable to the Op to get a little acquainted with her before her confinement.

We never saw the Op look so well as she did to day god grant that she may go out well in her present situation & that you may be as happy as we both wish you & as you deserve Yours Affly
Mama

Mama
Lady
The Op

AA

Dec. 2 1795

Mamma thinks that you had better appoind Lady Dashwood to come to the City after she quits her house to morrow evening at

the mess, as all begs that I should see when ould at Mr house then so own more quaint t.
as the
my ation be both of the

Ch. A.
M. P.
G. G.

Princess Elizabeth

to
The Prince of Wales

Dec. 2. 1795

III

Pr. Elizabeth
Dec. 2. 1795.

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales

Jan^y 5. 1796.

Princess Elizabeth

Jan^y. 5. 1796

At four o'clock this evening my dearest Brother your letter dated the 4th I have now got it & Mama desires me to thank you for your attention in writing us an account of the Sp. We shall continue most exceedingly anxious concerning Her, & long to hear of her being safe in her bed; — I was in such haste when I wrote in the morning that I did not name Sophia's being much better which I ought to have done, she has been confined since last Friday night with a pain in her side, but thank God in our dangerous part, Furton has seen her, & makes us very comfortable about her she is much more comfortable this evening & is now fast asleep — We all go to morrow to Hampton Court. Y^r Aff^{ly} Eliza —

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and mirroring.]

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales

AA

Princess Elizabeth
Jan^y. 7. 1796

7th Jan^y 1796.

I was with Mama at the time she was writing to you my beloved Brother so I could not send even a line, which was a great mortification to me, & as I shall not be able to offer you my congratulations in person, I must, beg of you to accept them by the means of her Subst, trough, my feelings for you at this moment (as well as every other) are too strong to be expressed any way, so fear that you can never know how deeply impressed on my heart, is every circumstance relative to your welfare, God grant that every blessing & happiness may attend, my (already) dear little Niece, & may she in every thing resemble (what is most affectionately loved by me) her dear Father; believe I entreat you that though I am in one of the last to wish you joy on this happy occasion I am not the least of those who is anxious concerning you, God bless you my dear dear Brother believe me ever yr most Obedt & sincere friend

Wm a very happy servant.

Dunrobin
27th Jan 1796

AA

[Jan 9 1796]
(cf. R.A. Geo. 36457)

Mr. Mason has been so kind as to let me know that she is sending a groom to town to enquire after the Prince, which gives me an opportunity of troubling you again my dear Brother, but I am sure you would have been delighted to have seen the estate's very body was in when they came from London, concerning Your amiable behaviour, & the dear little girl, the conversation was on the whole evening on her subject, we were all so anxious to hear that those who had not the pleasure of being of the party went from one to another to hear as much as they could, & we are now if possible more desirous now than ever of going to town thank God that you are now happy long long may you remain so, & may this dear little Infant prove the calm of comfort to you, & that in her you may forget your former woes I shall long to know how you are, as I fear your anxiety of mind will make you believe - The dear King talks of nothing but his grand (child) drank her health at dinner & went into the Equerry's room & made them drink it for a bumper.

 Y^r most aff^{ly} Edw^d

My
 Edw^d
 You

AA

[Jan 9 1796]
(cf. R.A. Geo. 36457)

My sisters are quite enchanted at our rather anxious to follow Yours example

me
in happily 10, at
you,
angel long hear
I make my ad (had
in &
&
enpre.

Princess Elizabeth
Jan 9 1796

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales

9 Jan 1796

ADDL. MSS. GEO. III

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales
Jan 10. 1796

AA

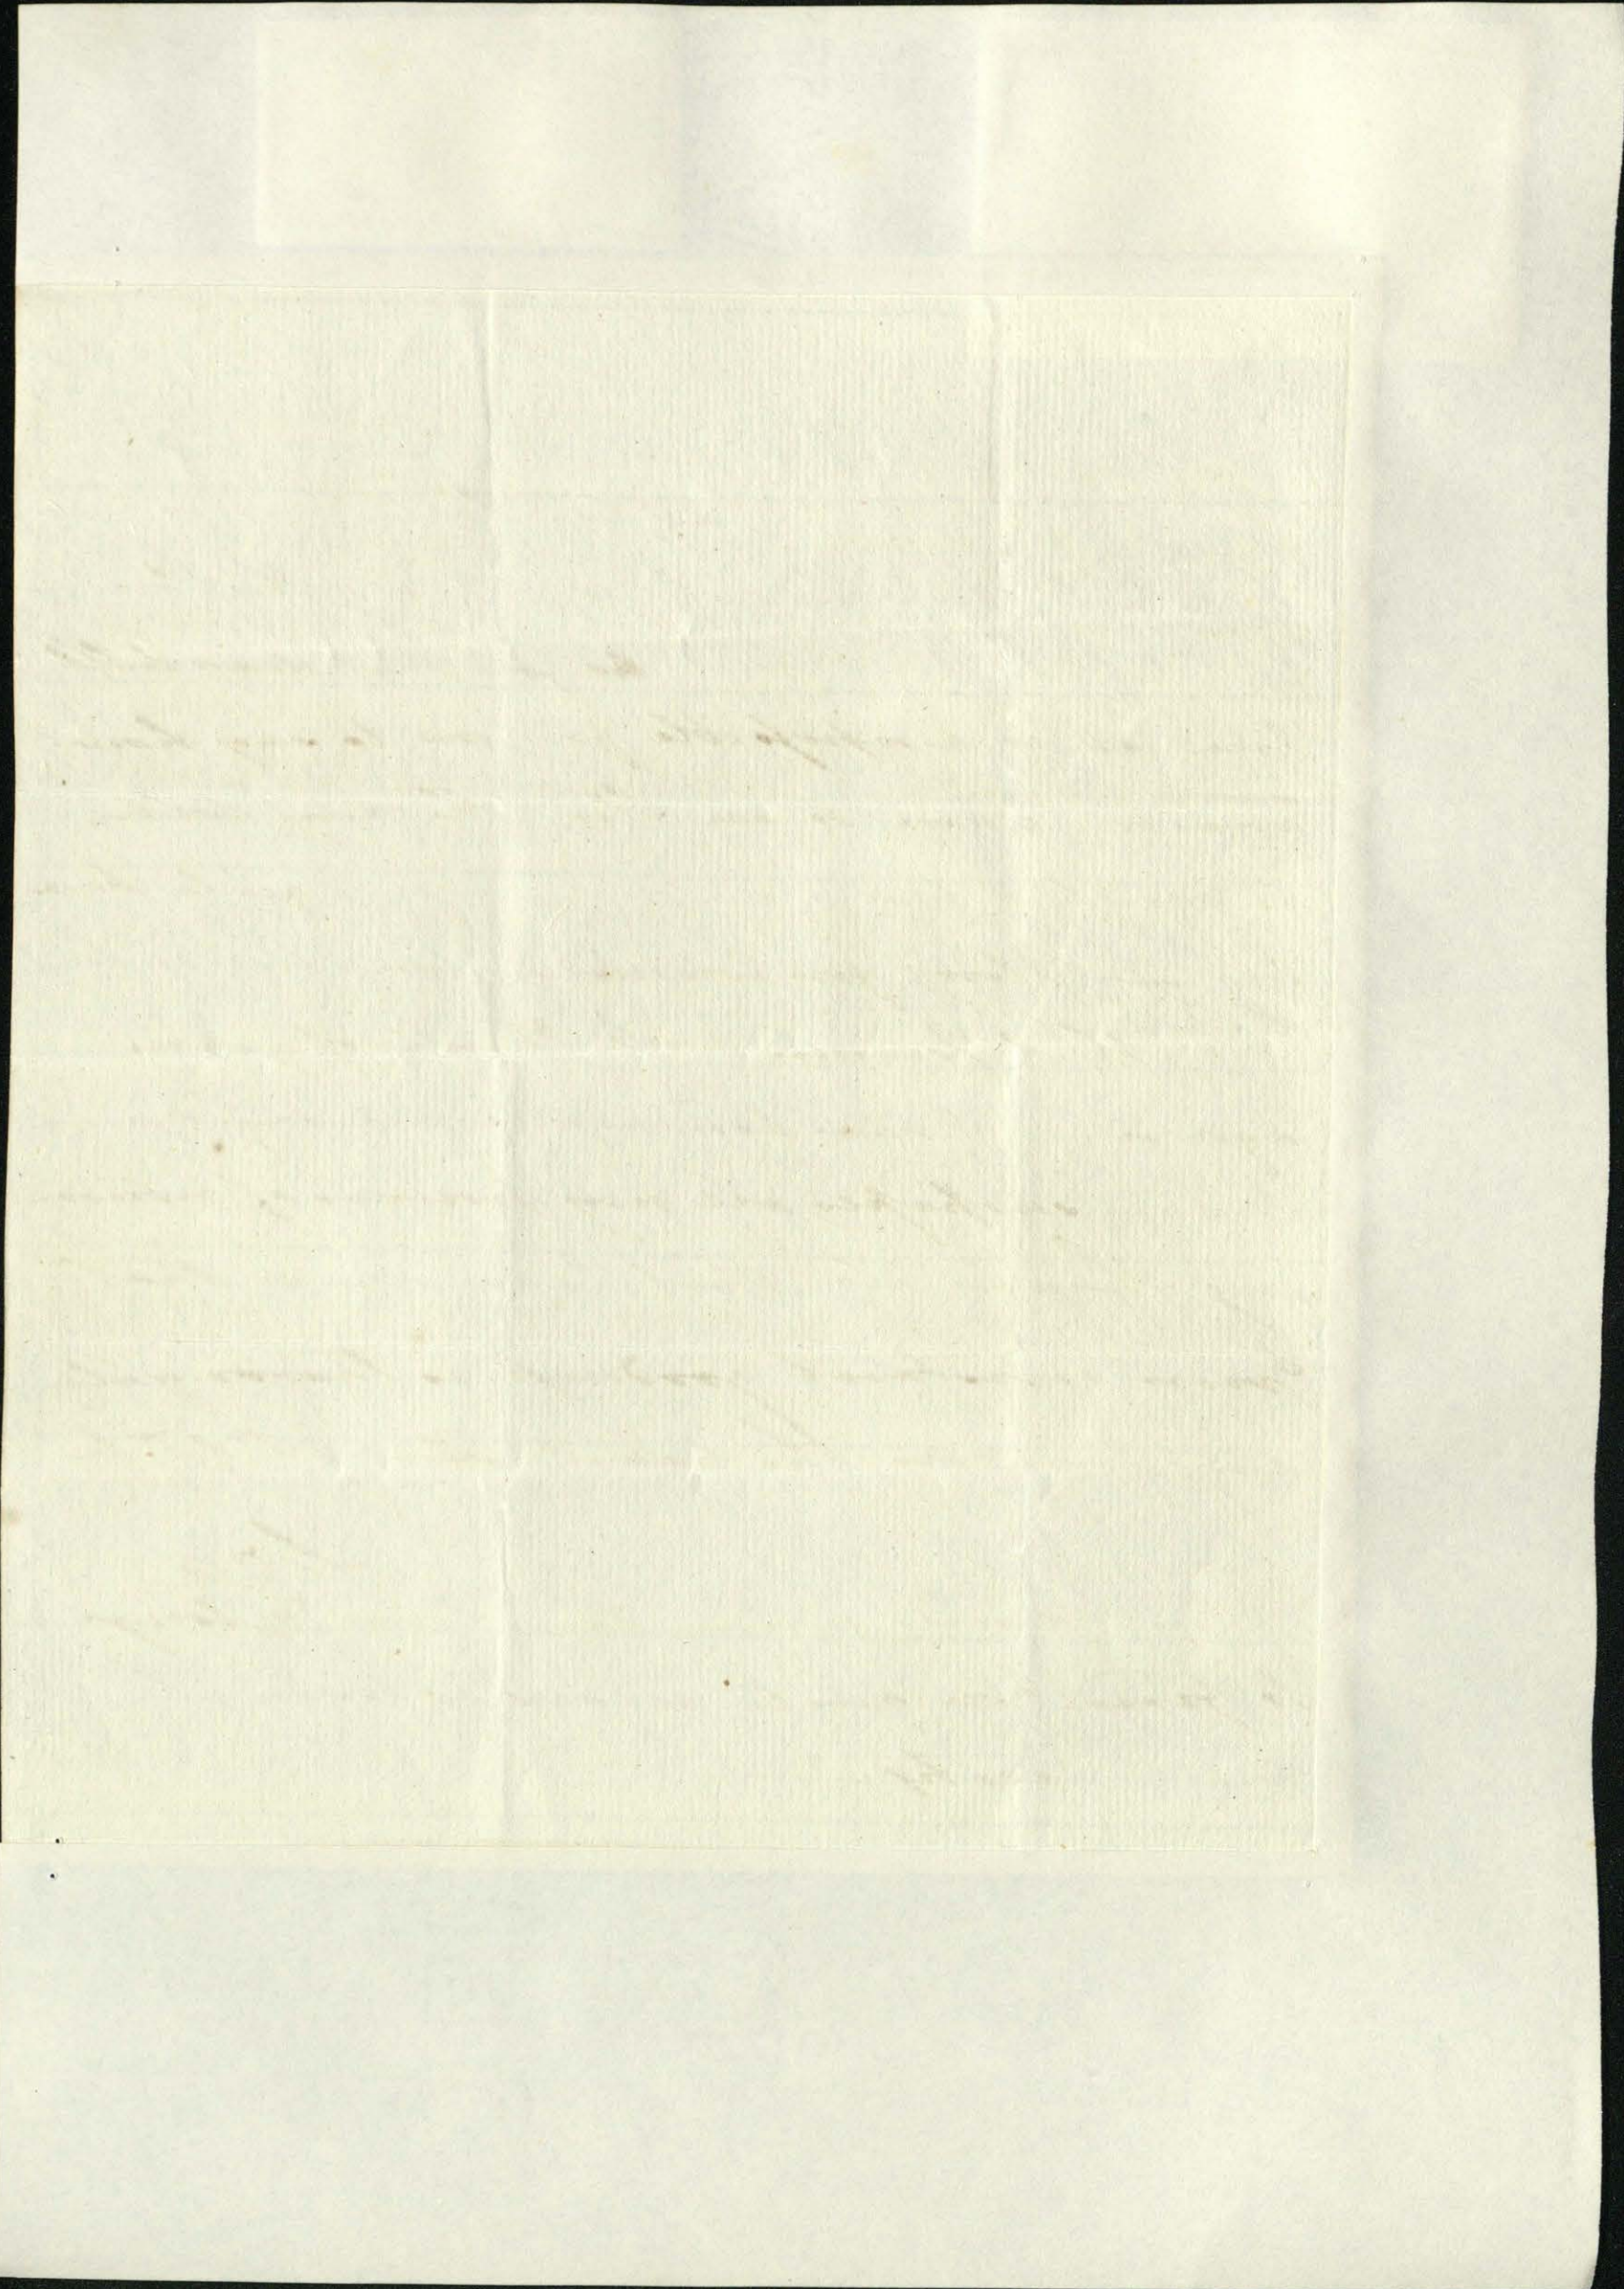

Princess Elizabeth
Jan. 10. 1796

(45)

I trust that I need not say how happy I am to hear all is well, our anxiety concerning the Princess I hope is now over. As for my dear little Sister it is impossible for me to say how anxious I am to see Her, The King talks so much of her & in such joy it is quite charming — I long for Wednesday for I flatter my self that Mama will think of going again — Your kindness to me my dear Brother surpasses all my powers of returning thanks all that I can say is that Your constant goodness is thoroughly engraven on the heart of your affectionate

Eliza

Mama desires many kind loves, & long to find you quite recovered from all your anxiety —

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales
Jan^y 1796

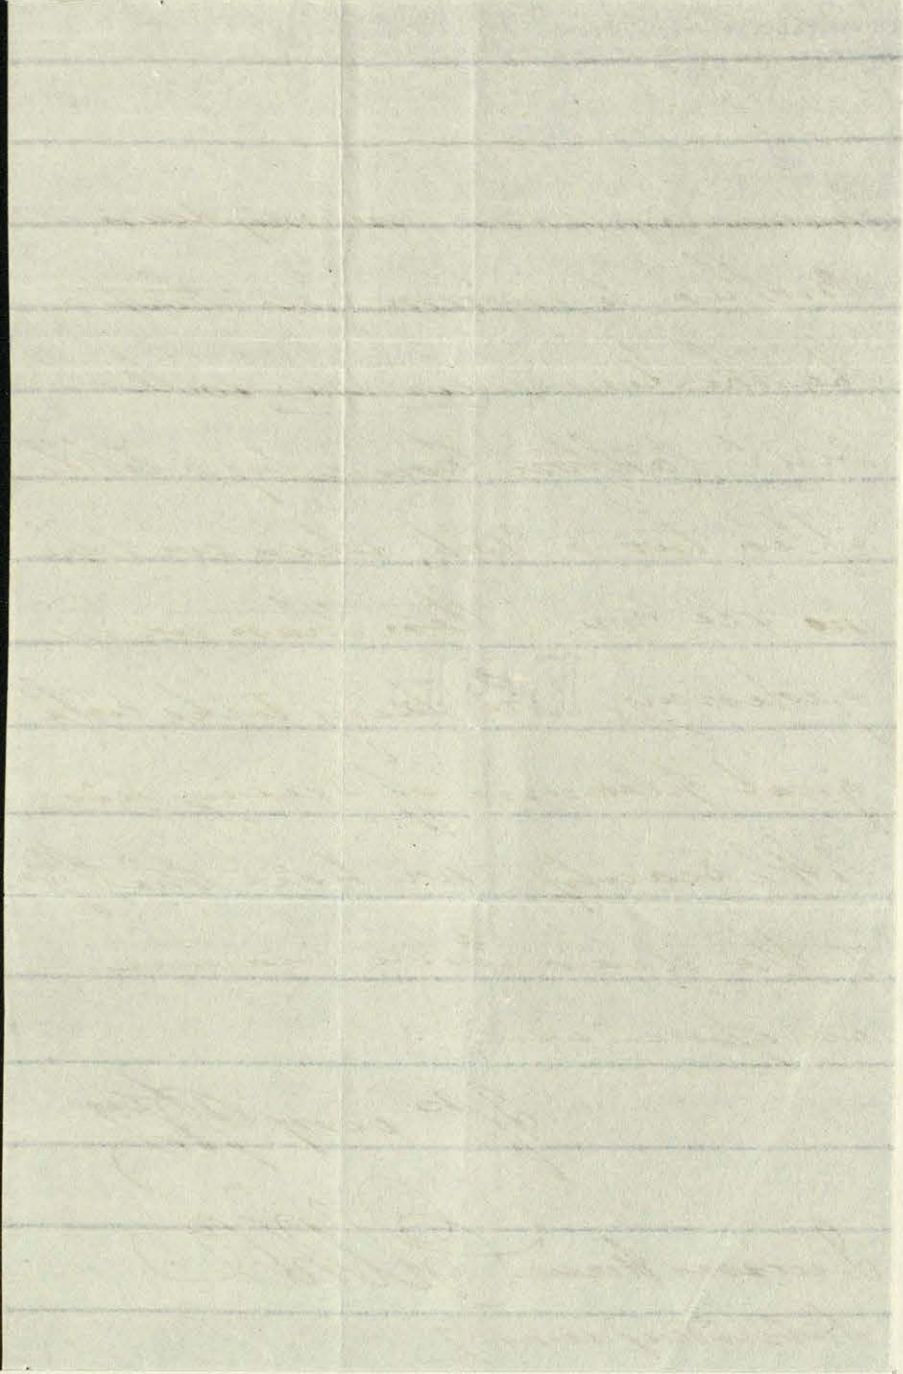

Princess Elizabeth
Jan^y - 1796

Sat.
9.16

Mama commands me my dear brother to inform you that she the King & us all will be at Carlton House by a little after two o'clock, when we hope ~~to~~ see you better than we did yesterday. The King talks with great pleasure of seeing his little beauty we hope the Q^y & the dear little maime are quite well.

Y^rs very Obed^t

Lucas Anne C. M. L.
Subsiding every

AA
 To P^rince of Wales Jan. (I end) 1796 (P^rcess. Charlotte Christiana Feb. 11.)

My dearest Brother
 I should certainly have written to you while you was in the country but knowing that Mr Park wrote every day & mamma true to you I really would not weary you with any of my scruples, beside what I have taken such care to be free of company of a morning in London that I can say with the greatest truth that I have never heard any thing worth you hearing — I have put mamma in mind about the drop for

To Pease of Hales Jan. (? end) 1796 (Pcess. Charlotte Christian Feb. 11.)

Lady Dashwood for the Christening it is to white satin, & I hope you will approve, that instead of your giving her a gold or silver stuff which she could only wear at Court we have all agreed that a suit of lace will be of much more use to her, more durable, & still more acceptable as lace is a lasting thing & will remain for ever in her family as a mark of your favour — I must say that she needed no gift from you as a remembrance of your goodness as it is deeply engraven on her heart.

 Thank God my beloved Brother your charitable kindness is at present that I have the satisfaction of hearing your praise all round, which is a real cordial to me, as no one can ever love you with more sincerity truth & affection than your self

W. H. H.

pp Elizabeth

Jan 3 1796

[Faint, mirrored handwriting, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page]

AA

End Jan. or beginning of Feb. 1796

My dearest Brother

Mamma commands me to give her kindest love to you, & to say that she would have been in Person to have enquired after you, knowing you was to be confined this morning; the Prince & the dear little girl but that she was obliged to settle herself for the winter as we call it which prevented her; she begs you will let us know how all is going on - She says could talk of nothing but his pretty little grand child, He says there never was so perfect a little creature & every body here was delighted to see them in such extasy of joy Mamma will tell you every thing about Lady Darwood. I told her what you said yesterday & she approves greatly.

Princess Elizabeth

to

The Prince of Wales

Y^{rs} Obedt^{ly}
M^{rs} M^{rs}

1791

AA

[May 8. 1796]
(cf. Geo = 42113-4)

You may easily conceive, my beloved Bro: then the distress & anxiety your letter mentioned in my breast this morning on reading the contents which en-deed is shocking and being in other words, to aggravate your distress of mind, before 8 o'clock I gave it to Mamma, who desires me to say with her kind & affectionate love that she will do every thing that lay in her power to serve you when the King tells it her but that you will know there are many things that she cannot say she knows, as she should the bounds of Duency should never be put aside even between Man & Wife — when ever you arrive she will be glad to see you if it suits she will be here, if it does not she will be at Fraymore, & then you can talk over what is to be done, we are as ignorant as yourself about this for we have heard nothing of her since Tuesday, when every thing went on as usual we grieve most sincerely for what you are forced to go through, but trust in God that every thing may turn out to your advantage & happiness — but Maria thinks

she
 she
 be of well ar
 & the fr

AA

[May 8 1796]
(cf. Geo = 42113-4)

She knows the A so well that she is fully persuaded he will be against any open rupture if he do any thing ^{about it though he will} _{feel it much} ^{open} well see her the moment you arrive I wrote in great haste & therefore can only add how truly I am yr affec^ted Sister

M^r Pitt

never man seen if it it do
 re, what
 man
 we
 in went out
 re
 not
 may large thanks

*Sincerely,
to
The Prince of Wales*

1796

AA

9 May 27 1796
 (The P.S. suggests she had heard a garbled account of Lt. Fredk's shooting Lt. Charles Torushed v. Genl. Keag.)

My dearest Brother

Mamma goes away very early to day, so will not be able to see you which she is very sorry for, but it is so hot, & so dusty that she could not put off her going till later as we go five in the carriage —

I received your kind letter & feel deeply for you, but hope things will turn out better than they at present appear. Tomorrow we shall have the happiness of seeing you & hearing what we are very anxious about as your comfort in this world is what we most wish for though many may love you dearly I am certain your own family does beyond all bounds & not the least of those attached to you is your sister

Edw. M. R.

How shocked have we all been this morning with the horrid news of the Duel between Jousserands two sons, it makes my blood run cold, good God what must not Lord Charles feel, really an such a case & John is the most fortunate now I pity the family & God forgive them in every mayer

Family to Prince of Wales
to
Edw. M. R.

June 3 1796

As you wish to hear from one of us I write which is entirely to please you otherwise my spirits are at present not fit for any thing, so of course I feel for writing I have very little to say, but that we are one & all very miserable about you & what we have ~~been~~ suffered & what all powers of imagination, & as for talking that is impossible to any one, as I am sorry to say I have seen by your own unhappy fate that few people are true in this world. — but friends & you are all of opinion that a resignation must take place for the sake of the Country & the whole Royal family for you fall all must fall, & there with your excellent heart how could you bear the dishonour & misery of your own family, I am sorry, very sorry to write these severe & unkind truths but alas if you order me to write I must speak out for was I not, I should not think myself your true friend - You must my dearest recollect that your education in life is not that of a private Gentleman, therefore every thing you do however serious or trifling, will ever be of consequence & doubly so as not being a young Brother but Dear to this Country The resignation can never lower you as it must come from them selves & while you are away & will no doubt stem the torrent of abuse, & if done properly & respectfully may be of use to Her in the eyes of the world - I would act so m as I of pr

 I tru
 Liber
 homo grie kind to Se in th agr
 & the you & w fur alter your to it

June 3 1796

so my self was I in her selection as I should think it the only method of proving to you my regard I trust in God you will forgive the liberty I have taken but upon my honour it is only meant as the greatest proof of my affection to you besides which I cannot help wishing to see you in every point dear & bright in the world. & if you could see the agony of mind of our poor Mother & the distress she is in I am sure you would not be able to stand it & would again make a sacrifice for her sake, which from her considerable attachment to you you yourself would think she had a right to claim - If most Affly I.

Princess Elizabeth
to

Mr Prince of Wales,

June 3rd 1796.

June 3rd 1796.

AA

June 5 [1796]

(MS. Geo. 47176)

Queens House
June 5th

I did not venture to write as Mama has wrote everything of consequence to you, but Ernest having had a fall from his horse, & being told he was prevented, & therefore wished me to write to you in his name; he desires me to tell you that Mama would have sent her letter through him, but as the King had asked her whether she would not answer your letter? He thought it proper, to answer you, & give it him — He conversed with my three brothers yesterday & Ernest who is debating to me says that nobody could speak more justly, more coolly & harder than he did on your subject; but that he was convinced that some persons on other words upon the Princess, & who ever they are; they are acting exceedingly wrong.
 He has been near two hours with the King but nothing has as yet transpired but Ernest will spare no trouble to find out & let you know — The family quit Town to morrow, but Ernest remains, & does not intend to quit it (but for a few hours) as he thinks he is of more use to you here than out of London in the present Crisis — I return you many thanks for your kind letter which has made my mind easy. all I hope is that we shall soon meet again when I shall have the pleasure of opening you by word of mouth how truly I am

Yours affectionately
J. W. M.

Pray excuse the haste I have wrote in I am almost ashamed of sending such an Epistle &c

Francis Blyth
The Prince of Wales
June 5. 5

? evening June 5 1796

I would not answer you my dear brother by Messengers as I was reading to Mr King the Queen desires me to tell you that nothing would have prevented my going to Carlton House but what Sir Henry St John said when concerning our dear Emma being to be kept quiet to recover she was come with Augusta & Henry & me & we said she I think you judge perfectly right she must be such a little after tea for Mr King Yrs Affly G. C. C.

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales

To Pe. of Hales

9 June 6 1796
(C. R. A. Geo 3 36468)

My dearest Brother

I received your kind letter last night & instantly gave the enclosed paper to Maria, which she was glad to have, & said she would instantly burn it after showing it to the King.

By this time you will know every thing from Lord Moore whose conduct in this trying affair must give universal applause, & I now trust in God my dearest Brother you have at last found a true & sincere friend for really things are come to such a pass now that one has an aversion for almost the whole world. The King always talks of you with great affection, regard, & firmness constantly saying that you should never yield to the Op. & she must submit which every woman

To Pe. of Hales

9 June 6 1796
(C.R.A. Geo 3 36468)

ought. He has said & said that you must be supported by the whole family for if you was to fall the rest of family would soon follow in short I cannot help hoping, that good may come out of evil as I am ever for looking on the bright side of every thing & that this crisis sad as it has appeared must show how thoroughly linked the whole family is together & prove the Kings real attachment & love for his children for when ever he speaks of you which is very very often he constantly begins "I speak & feel like a Father" I am sure you would be rejoiced to see him look so well, so composed & so resigned, for he has felt all this deeply but he has very great power & makes it a rule to appear in spirits in company

& I have particularly remarked that he has often talked of you, & stories you have told him which we are all persuaded is done on purpose to cheer the world that we are all well together]

Ernest I saw yesterday. he is all anxiety about you & talks of going to the Grange when William returns (who I understand goes to day before Twelve, Mr Leigh will have all our letters, Augusta is writing also. Princess Royal would have done the same but that she is gone over to the Castle to the Sp of Orange. Had we going to Rome & had we but you amongst us we should be very happy God knows, we cannot boast of happiness since all your distress - God bless you my dearest & believe me most affly
 G. Eliza

Princess Elizabeth

to

The Prince of Wales

[Faint, mirrored handwriting from the reverse side of the page, appearing as bleed-through. The text is largely illegible due to fading and the nature of the ink transfer.]

AA

(55)

? June 12 or 13 1796
(G. Geo. 47176)Gnera
Scene
Sat 6/06
May 30/96

You may easily believe my distrust what anxiety of mind we we all under concerning you. but you are so sincerely loved by us all that you may depend upon us never forsaking one who has so thoroughly he proved himself one of the most amiable but alas I must say most unfortunate of mortals We have seen Ernest do not think that any of us can be base enough not to say all we know, determination in every thing - I fear much for your health for God sake take care of yourself You must feel a momentary joy from your beloved Infants having met her first tooth while may she go through life without a cloud is our fervent prayer I trust you will forgive the urgency of mind I am in to excuse my saying to you that I fear the putting off the resignation is a bad plan, as bad people are but too ready to catch at any thing & condemn you & being her own act & deed it may save you & do her good in the eyes of the world Pray pray forgive me as you must know what I say is meant merely for your good, I rely on your goodness to burn this & never to own I have touched upon the subject God bless you my dearest & believe unutterably

Yours

1661

Princess Elizabeth
to Princess of Wales

AA
 Sunday 9 June 26 1796
 (Cl Geo^y 42185)

Lucas Lodge Sunday evening

As I have an opportunity of writing to town, I could not possibly let it pass without sending a few lines to you my most beloved Brother, for you shall never have it to say that you have experienced ingratitude from me, I have certainly nothing to say & your mind has been so much oppressed with vexation, for me to worry you with letters but not having seen you as I flattered myself hoping all this to have been over by this time I postponed writing, that I might have expressed by word of mouth the unbounded affection of my heart, — I can assure you you are our only topic of conversation for we are all truly miserable about you & the first question in the morning

& the last at night is, Have you heard any thing from Richardson or London & we are however constantly looking forward to our seeing you again & when night comes I cannot help thinking another day is passed, so we are never that happy & anxious period Mamma looks better - mais elle verra some plus que sa propre vie, ainsi elle souffre, et cruellement, mais le bon Dieu nous protégera, et l'Espe-rance nous est encore la vie - for us poor girls, we have all heavy hearts on your subject, but we talk you over & over again from which we reap comfort otherwise we are very sad indeed - we were blessed with the sight of your image your sweet little girl, who though I rejoiced to see made me feel a pang of grief such as I never before had swallowed; I felt that my love was such for you that I could never give my life with pleasure if I could but adm

 mind
 w ful
 what
 when my so & hope see

AA Sunday 9 June 26 1796 (of Geo's 42185)

administer comfort into your distressed mind. Do excuse & pardon me if my letter is full of non sense for I really write just what is dictated by an unaffected heart which is totally devoted to you My wishes desire them in great love & hope with me that we shall soon see one another again

God bless you my dear & beloved Brother believe unchangeably & affec^{ly} but affected
E. Hall

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales

AA

July 7 1796

Your great goodness at all times to me my dearest Bro: then makes me trouble You with this Letter though I will own my conscience, & my feelings can scarce bear doing so, but my confidence in the Good of Brothrs is such, that I can only apply to Him: & Am alone in distress; it is cruel when you are so cruelly worried in every way to plague You very your quiet, but alas a very disagreeable instance has happen'd to me which makes me fly to You. You shall hear what I have to say though it makes me really miserable to tear You —

At this moment owing to many many un: pleasant things I have been very much plagu'd to pay a sum of money, which is totally out of power, if I do not entreat of You to lend me some, which I will most solemnly promise to pay off by one hundred a Quarter till it is quite discharged to You, if you can lend it me it would be an obligation never to be forgotten as my mind is upon the Track from never has.

ing allowed myself before to have a difficulty the truth of how it has happened shall be told you honestly, but I must entreat you never to name it to any of my family upon any account whatever excepting my eldest sister who found me in a most wretched situation, & to whom I said the only friend I would look up to for assistance if it was to be had was yourself.

The sum I must now tell you is £100. I am shock'd with horror at it & when I get out of this difficulty you may depend on my honor I shall never to fall into it again, as I have suffered so much in my whole life Pray Pray forgive this petition & judge by your own excellent heart what I must feel in troubling you with this I really can write no more I am so agitated, only to say our dear Mother is thank God well My eldest sister all happiness & the rest of the family quite in health

Dr Parsons has began to teach us all we like hear exceedingly but I have been too much out of spirits inwardly to enjoy any thing. Yrs affly S.

Sister & the Dr. dined with us to day I goes to Bath Monday

Thursday
27th July 1796

If you alone
I mean

AA

July 7 1796

If you write to me direct it to Gouly & to be given me alone as it is private for myself I would not have any one know it for the world.

the
you
to name
and
and majus.
to
I am
of honor
to
we ent to this
to
the can write
July
16

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales
7th July 1996

AA

July 10 1796

I would not have you see me without having received a note from me my dearest Brother to express how very grateful I feel for the bundle of letters which has penetrated too deeply to be described indeed it is impossible for me even to find words strong enough to give you the slightest idea of the fulness of my heart when your letter arrived. the more I think of it the more I think it a dream, the sudden change in my breast from the deepest despondency to the joy & gratitude you have created, it has not made me form a new character of you as it would prove how right I was in saying, that I would sooner fly to you on distress than any body being so certain to find a friend; you shall never find me encroach on that goodness which you have so kindly expressed — I have not mentioned having heard from you, no questions might have been asked so thought it better not to say any thing about it my sisters that is to say Royal & Lucretia excepted who deserve their due love, & I remain as I must ever do Your affectionate & most grateful sister

Elizabeth

Princess Elizabeth
to
The Prince of Wales
July 10th 1796.

Sunday
July 10th
1796