Oct 2nd 1809

My dear Mr. Paine Your kind letter of yesterday made me very happy An dear Mr. Paine passed a very comfortable day with the little fellow got up about three & returned to bed about 9 after having been in the room with the whole most off my wife. She has had a very restful night with a great return of fever the first part of it & much pain in the side, but Broom feels her with little or no fever this morning — The Prince's journey arrived yesterday at 4 o'clock Broom fully intended her going out most to day, but the weather is so damp & foggy it is quite of the question if G. has returned yesterday after having made every arrangement at his house to receive us & says he can judge us all very comfortably & appears delighted with the thoughts of seeing us again at his house - I by the way I am writing to my sister to day she was very alarming all the day before yesterday with a violent inflammation in her lungs - I have not seen her as she has been on to of me
