My

Queen's Palace April 12
 1810

My Dearest Mary,

I have again to thank you for a very kind letter, and I am glad to hear that dear Amelia has passed a tolerable day, all things considered. I am also sensible of Sir Henry Hallford's attention in going to London yesterday. I am really quite recovered from my late indisposition in the stomach, and much pleased that nothing occurs to prevent my returning to you tomorrow.

Believe me to be

(Signed)
 George R
