Dec 3 [1812]

My ever dear kind Brother. It is quite impossible to express my gratitude to you for the letter which I recd safe & shall return it with the other - I thank you very much perfect as I recd it after thinking of my truly (but generally) broken God knows how enough to suffer & go through - I never to think as Sister should have added to all your trouble & anxiety, but being to spend my time here & other provided things had. But have advanced for me (which I never recd in my thought of) I certainly should not at such a moment have worried you thus I am with love

You have not a more devoted friend in this world I think than who is now addressing you & one who is ready anxious to promote your comfort as far as it is in her power — Things have been better since the receipt of your letter which she showed us after dinner as well as her own mother — She said "If I had not shown you the Penn letter which I received yesterday & my answer I certainly should not have shown you this & I feel sorry to do so"
 Thus said I read avidly & of course we read the letter & made no remark

The enquirer of me had received any I am sure was not at not require any answer & I should have been very sorry indeed if the Prince had wrote to me as I feel as far as regards myself the subject ought to be & was to be announced but when the Prince comes to the explanation he has promised "which I feel some trust with every thing — Nothing two pages or quite long through talkative while be would to be when he got into a way & was came to be in I hope is letter — Charlotte comes to in this evening

I had no conversation with her as I only saw her at the card table, certainly at our evening parties here.
Remember me affectionately God bless you & bless me
