

Dec. 8 [1812]

My dearest Brother
 Nothing has pass'd a very quiet silent day but dinner will give to bid in good humour & has been a slap this last time — I only de (clapped) eyes to some to dinner in hurry & returns in the evening Charlotte will therefore pass the day with us, I hope & trust the dinner will so far beater beating before Charlotte than she may not remember them.
 uncomfortable than dinner.
 dinner is with us just here as it is our business matter to say as little in the subject to Charlotte as possible

Yours
Mary
