My dear Mr. Butler

I am sure you will be glad to hear that I have been in the Queen's room for one hour this evening and I hope is not too much for it though dreadfully fatigued & our cause with the finding newly come again out of her own opportunity after a confinement of a week you & a lady - It is impossible to describe the joy and pleasure her appearance amongst us has occasioned she went to bid the curtain she returned with her own padding was not till until tomorrow of this trial has done before or not — The thing is open —

Yours
Mary
