June the 18 -

My dear Mother
 The dinner continues according to do in very happy until she has received our answer to her letter
 The whole is a real triumph & I am sure her will equally invariable from my heart also I enter into earnest feelings & I am quite sure the L. does is likewise for she said from the first she should not be surprised if he did not come to see her

& therefore makes my allusion for his situation - I still can not help hoping that he gets more employed in this subject he will make up his mind to see her before he leaves England in particular when he reflects ~~there~~ advanced age & ~~course~~ of life and should any thing happen to her before he returns again to this Country he would be the first person to reproach

[1815]

humbly for bearing <sup>quoted</sup> quoted. Some with <sup>at</sup> ~~studies~~ ~~should be with her~~ - In God who make time feel that my loved Brother ~~of~~ <sup>of</sup> ~~the~~ <sup>the</sup> with my love that he must not forget to love ~~remembered~~ all these numbers as I believe me yours
