

[1818]

Oct^r the 31st 1818

As I am deprived the pleasure of seeing you this evening I take up my pen my dear Mother to inform you that I have seen the two women to day & she first went on nearly all that passed between herself & August yesterday & again this morning gratefully our conversation giving way to great despondency at one moment & yet at others hoping she might still get out of the world - but her great object was to desire me to tell you with her best after her that she lunged to me you that she fell it eyes some she had had that pleasure, but then ~~she~~ she ~~was~~ she ~~was~~ she she fell it mind in our come her she darted the word strong the for it & traced of the sight of you ^{light} ~~was~~ ~~not~~ quite find our end to the little beneath she had left - she was "I know he comes every day I feel ~~absolutely~~ all his attention but I can not ~~enough~~ all I make to say - all this was word in the violent fits of tears & when she dis missed me hoped.

I would not forget the envelope - It was a most affecting interest & truly like my heart to me but so ill as much nearly & in ruffings & got so anxious to try & my whole was bound about my body & my things I make no excuse for this should send feeling sure that the recollection of you & the manner the woman you must justify your quite as much as it does me to be the friend of such a envelope & shall run ever for a name & in all situations Yours
Wm. Pitt

I thought the I may all when I was with her but quite nearly and not at all stuffy but much else to her own situation
