(to Chelmsfordley's marriage)

My beloved Brother

The enclosed letter was just sent by my hands this morning & I was desired to make known the contents in part as I thought proper - I was also told that an answer or acknowledgment had been sent to the letter or should my justice be taken of the letter having been received that he had inquired with the same order under the letter & name And there was such a manner as to be put as your name as in the letter he brought the letter to me — When reading the letter quickly was I struck me I was letter to send it your at once — I hope this (old Chelmsford's marriage) will find you pretty well of course you have heard that had I been married as to my own one of the Duke of Beaufort's Daughters - the accounts this day of Lady I suggest are very bad & they are indeed great uncertainty about her - I must to me I am very sorry the other things are from Beaufort & was much interested in the true whole appearance, but she is ^{so} ~~very~~ young the many still unpaired Examples a very promising activity - There is not a word but interesting & pleasing to take the trouble properly God bless you yours & family
