

To Duchess of Cambridge

Apr. 26 1851

I return you a thousand Thanks & most sincere
for all your very great kindness to me yesterday & let me express again
& again how much
I admire your
beautiful brooch
& your good taste

To Duchess of Cambridge

Apr. 26 1851

in your choice of dear George's parents to me - You visited
 me by your kind
 & dear Mary's very delightful & charming
 efforts to visit
 me to pass the
 day cheerfully
 & in some degree

at the Drive my thoughts
 from the recollection
 of the dear & beloved Edward & Bertha
 that alas I lost
 last year & when
 always joined the day
 with me - When I say thus I am sure
 I would not recall

never look as though
I had I feel he is wonderful & spend all
the travels of this World. I found a letter from George full of doubt about coming
for the 1st of May -
but nothing to do
of the 2nd week it
had quarant after
write back the same

or make him write
 to the Queen —
 He must return to Suffolk if he comes
 as he was not yet
 in his expectations
 My own feeling is
 there are so few of
 us left of the Royal Family I can only
 attend to that
 he might be come

but I do not feel
that my judgment
is the one
ought to go by
of the sun rising
is to ask the sun makes

I hope all your people got home
safe & enjoyed

Wm
to the
Mary
I am quite well
April 26
M
~~1851~~ 1851.

[Faint, mirrored handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is illegible due to fading and mirroring.]