My dear Mr. Stowe

I must write a line to say that I had a letter from the Queen
 last night in which she makes use of these expressions
 "I am ever your
 at Paris & the Queen in her private matters are beyond

all Princes" - I can not delay giving you
 this satisfaction & only regret you have not
 "not with you as I would have made
 me or happy that's approbation of me have George's embroider -
 Call upon me soon
 for you must not

Requests are old friend of your Mother that change to the children of her old & early friends Yours truly
 Wm. Pitt
